Jubilant Life Sciences gives free hand sanitizers to support fight against COVID-19

Jubilant Life Sciences Limited, a Jubilant Bhartia Group company, announced that its research and development team has developed formulation for hand sanitizer using its own produced Ethanol. The company got necessary approvals & has quickly realigned its manufacturing facility to start producing hand sanitizers at a short notice. This was made possible due to support by Government of Uttar Pradesh & its departments, who gave all the necessary approvals in record time, including Food Safety & Drug Administration, the Excise Department and the Uttar Pradesh Pollution Control Board.

Jubilant Life Sciences has started supplying, free of cost, these hand sanitizers to Governments both at the national & the state level. Noida Administration, Government Hospital, Municipal, District Administration, Police Personnel at Jyotiba Phuley Nagar and Gautam Budha Nagar and the healthcare staff & volunteers working at All India Institute of Medical Sciences, Delhi have received the first instalment.

Government of India has taken commendable actions against the spread of COVID-19. Jubilant Bhartia Group companies are committed to support these measures through the supply of hand sanitizers to the healthcare workers in the hospitals and in the field, to control the spread of this pandemic.
